me: lol, Nelson's outside me: he just had some argument with some black guy with whom a deal seems to have turned sour me: I got to watch it through my window me: then Nelson went trodding off in fear me: black guy said, "Lay low baby boy." me: maybe he'll kill him me: that would save me the trouble of explaining to him why I'm not paying him half the perceived value of worthless counterfeit money Joshua: very well - seems like an exciting day on park street me: I'll miss it Joshua: just another week or so Joshua: i've burned through an hour or so at work today looking through this website Joshua: http://www.comicvine.com/mothman/29-29808/me: I see
Joshua: that's the mothman page - but i think they've thought of everyone
